

MGT 12A & 12AH Course SLOs

MGT12A CSLO 01 Analyze a given environmental law and determine the effect of this law on a specific business enterprise.

MGT12A CSLO 02 Explain and distinguish among forms of intellectual property.

MGT12A CSLO 03 Categorize the key elements that make contracts binding and what is meant by a breach.

MGT12A CSLO 04 Explain the structure of the dual court system used in the U.S.

MGT12A CSLO 05 Describe the legal responsibilities of product manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers as they pertain to product liability.

MGT12A CSLO 06 Identify the concept of agency and synthesize the possible relationships.

MGT12A CSLO 07 Explain the rights and responsibilities of creditors and debtors and relate those to bankruptcy protections.

MGT12A CSLO 08 Identify and apply legal concepts to Bankruptcy remedies.

MGT12A CSLO 09 Identify, define and describe the various forms of business organization.

MGT12A CSLO 10 Describe how the Bill of Rights protects citizens of the United States.

MGT12A CSLO 11 Describe the relationship between business law and business ethics.

MGT12A CSLO 12 Develop rational arguments for ethical positions and describe the implications for the individual, the business, and for the consumer.